

Success for Herefordshire based APL Member Big Fish Landscapes

In association with the 'APL Avenue' Show Garden Competition at
BBC Gardeners' World Live, 15-18 June, NEC Birmingham

Big Fish Landscapes, based in Herefordshire, have been announced as one of the APL Avenue Show Garden Competition winners who'll go forward to build their design at BBC Gardeners' World Live, sponsored by Lexus.

The five APL Avenue Show Gardens, with small front or back garden theme, are inspirational, realistic and relatable (a mantra for BBC Gardeners' World Live) and are well worth visiting to find ideas for your own garden.

Adam Frost, Gardeners' World presenter & award-winning garden designer, says: "APL Avenue Show Gardens at BBC Gardeners' World Live have a real achievable feel and will provide great take-home ideas and lots of inspiration. I can't wait to see them in the flesh."

Organisers are thrilled to be working with Marshalls who are supporting the APL Avenue Show Garden Competition with products from their domestic range. In addition, Veolia will be donating Pro-Grow products to each of the participants.

And here is the design that won Big Fish Landscapes with designer Cherry Carmen of Cherry Blossom Landscapes, their place at BBC Gardeners' World Live this year.

Big Fish Landscapes Garden

A back garden designed for a middle-aged couple looking to upgrade their garden to match their renovated house. They are enthusiastic nature and art lovers and would like a space that looks like art through their glass sliding doors. The innovative decking area converts into lounge chairs, a perfect viewing platform. A moss graffiti wall is a natural and wildlife friendly way to introduce art into the garden and to spruce up a plain wall. Architectural log piles attract mammals, bees and insects and a large tree and pergola create a bird friendly canopy and privacy.

Please join us in congratulating your Herefordshire landscaper, Big Fish Landscapes. Come along to support them and see the fabulous garden at BBC Gardeners' World Live, NEC Birmingham, 15-18 June. For more information and to book tickets visit www.bbcgardenersworldlive.com
