

Success for Kent based APL Member Artemis Landscapes

In association with the 'APL Avenue' Show Garden Competition at
BBC Gardeners' World Live, 15-18 June, NEC Birmingham

Artemis Landscapes, based in Kent, have been announced as one of the APL Avenue Show Garden Competition winners who'll go forward to build their design at BBC Gardeners' World Live, sponsored by Lexus.

The five APL Avenue Show Gardens, with small front or back garden theme, are inspirational, realistic and relatable (a mantra for BBC Gardeners' World Live) and are well visiting to find ideas for your own garden.

Adam Frost, Gardeners' World presenter & award-winning garden designer, says: "APL Avenue Show Gardens at BBC Gardeners' World Live have a real achievable feel and will provide great take-home ideas and lots of inspiration. I can't wait to see them in the flesh."

Organisers are thrilled to be working with Marshalls who are supporting the APL Avenue Show Garden Competition with products from their domestic range. In addition, Veolia will be donating Pro-Grow products to each of the participants.

And here is the design that won Artemis Landscapes with designer Viv Seccombe their place at BBC Gardeners' World Live this year.

Artemis Landscapes 'Living In Sync' Garden

A front garden designed for a professional, urban couple taking inspiration from their keen interest in biodiversity, combined with their community spirit, to transform the space from tarmac into an inspiring paradise for wildlife, with year-round plant interest and alluring details. Features include wildlife-friendly planting, sculptural bug towers, functional bin and bicycle storage made from sustainable wood and recycled paving. The feature tree, Crab Apple, is wildlife friendly and the wide plant borders are surrounded by embedded recycled bottles which give flashes of jewelled colour in the sunlight.

Please join us in congratulating your Kent Landscaper Artemis Landscapes. Come along to support them and see the fabulous garden at BBC Gardeners' World Live, NEC Birmingham, 15-18 June.
